Friday, September 9 - Day 5 - MUNICH/OBERAMMERGAU - This morning we depart Munich after breakfast for the scenic drive to Oberammergau, the famous Passion Play village. We check in at our accommodations and following an independent lunch, you can visit the Oberammergau Museum or walk among the many craft shops, known for their woodcarvings. We then head to the Theatre: “A play about death and life, promised at the moment of a fatal threat” – these are the opening words of the story of the Oberammergau Passion Play. In 1633, in the middle of the Thirty Years War, after months of suffering and dying as a result of the plague, the people of Oberammergau vowed to perform “The play of the passion, death and rising of our Lord Jesus Christ” every ten years. At Whitsun 1634 they kept their promise for the first time on a stage they had set up in a cemetery, over the graves of those who have died of the plague. A promise made four centuries ago will come to life for us by hundreds of actors, choir members and musicians in one of the most extravagant productions of the passion play and a once in a lifetime experience. Our performance runs from 2:30 pm to 5:00 pm and after a 3-hour dinner break (included), it concludes from 8:00 pm to 10:30 pm. After the astounding performance, we return to our accommodations for the night. (B, D)

Saturday, September 10 - DAY 6 - OBERAMMERGAU/INNSBRUCK – We depart early from Oberammergau to visit the famous Neuschwanstein Castle built by King Ludwig. The castle, with its snow-white limestone façade and fanciful turrets peeking out from the forested mountain tops of the Hohenschwangau Valley, Neuschwanstein Castle could easily have been lifted from the pages of a fairy tale. In a way, it has – the German castle famously inspired Disney’s Sleeping Beauty castle. After the visit, we continue to Innsbruck. On arrival, we have a walking tour of the city center where we will see the “Golden Roof” building – the emblem of the old town, which was completed in 1500: the roof was decorated with 2,738 fire-gilded copper tiles. We also visit the Innsbruck cathedral and also the Imperial Palace (Hofburg) where we celebrate Mass in its chapel. After the walk through the city center, we will have an independent lunch break. You may choose the legendary Sacher coffee house to enjoy the world-renowned Sacher cake. Next, we continue along the Inn River to the cable car station, which will take us up the local hill “Hungerburg” for a scenic stop with stunning views of the city of Innsbruck and the surrounding mountains. We then travel to our hotel to check in and have an independent dinner. (B)

Sunday, September 11 - DAY 7 - INNSBRUCK/SALZBURG – This morning, before we leave Innsbruck, we will enjoy a visit to the biggest and first Swarovsky crystal shop. The Swarovsky family originates from Innsbruck. We travel to Salzburg and begin our visit with a visit and Mass at the Franciscan Church, one of the city’s oldest. Afterwards, we explore the Old Town on a walking tour. We will pass the Festival Hall, visit the Cathedral and St Peter’s Abbey, and learn how the city became a bishop’s seat. We will also learn about the city’s most famous resident, Wolfgang Mozart, who was born in Salzburg and lived in the city until his late teens by visiting his birthplace. After an independent lunch, we admire the gardens and visit Mirabell Palace, where several scenes from The Sound of Music were filmed. We pass the statue of Pegasus, the same statue that Maria and the children famously danced around while singing ‘Do-Re-Mi.’ We arrive at our hotel for check in and dinner together. (B, D)

Monday, September 12 - Day 8 – SALZBURG/VIENNA - We drive from Salzburg to Vienna via the Vienna Woods. Our first stop is a visit to the Abbey Heiligenkreuz, which was founded in 1133 and is still today an active monastery. We visit the medieval cloister and the burial place of the former Babenberger rulers. This dynasty was the oldest in Austria and shaped its history throughout many centuries. We see the memorial chapel built on the site of the former imperial hunting lodge of Mayerling. In 1889 the tragedy of Crown Prince Rudolf and his mistress Baroness Vetsera took place at the lodge. We arrive at Seegrotte Hinterbrühl, where Europe’s biggest underground lake awaits you. By boat we travel through the mystically lighted galleries. The green shimmering water and the rough stonewalls add to the very special atmosphere. We drive through the picturesque landscape back to the city of Vienna, passing Lichtenstein Castle. We return to our hotel and enjoy dinner together. (B, D)

Tuesday, September 13 - Day 9 – VIENNA - After breakfast we depart our hotel to discover the historic city of Vienna starting with Mass and a tour of the city’s Gothic landmark: St. Stephen’s Cathedral. After our included lunch, our tour will include a tour of the Vienna Opera House (dependent on rehearsal schedule). We return to our hotel to get ready for the evening events. We travel to visit Schönbrunn Palace the 1,441-room summer residence of the Hapsburgs that rivals the Palace of Versailles with time to explore the vast gardens. After our tour, we enjoy an elegant dinner at the palace followed by a concert by the palace orchestra enchanting us with the melodies of Mozart and Strauss. We return to our hotel in Vienna for the night. (B, L, D)

Wednesday, September 14 - DAY 10 - After our breakfast this morning, we transfer to the airport for our flight home. (B)
